

LUCAS & LEWELLEN

VINEYARDS

Preface

From the Lucas & Lewellen vineyards in Santa Barbara County, Louis Lucas selects choice lots for a limited production of premium wines. Attention to detail in the vineyards yields superior quality grapes from which Dan Gehrs crafts award winning wines. The vineyards of Lucas & Lewellen are located in the three principal wine grape growing regions of Santa Barbara County: the Santa Maria Valley, the Los Alamos Valley, and the Santa Ynez Valley. These valleys all run west from the coastal mountains to the Pacific Ocean, allowing warm days and cool nights to produce a long, gentle growing season.

Vineyard Notes

The Los Alamos Vineyard is a cool climate vineyard in the Santa Barbara County AVA. Stretching for over a mile of Highway 101 frontage just south of the town of Los Alamos, these vineyards are home to over 20 varieties of grapes, representing the principal varieties of the Rhone, Burgundy and Bordeaux regions of France, as well as Italian varieties. With some of the vines planted from cuttings brought from Europe over 25 years ago, these vineyards have long been a favorite source for many of California's best wineries.

Winemaker Notes

Our 2007 Pinot Grigio was grown in the cool Los Alamos district and was harvested at full maturity. The grapes were harvested in the early morning, whole cluster pressed and cold fermented over a very long period. This wine was bottled young to preserve freshness and trueness of character. This method captures the subtle aromas of lemon peel, lily flower, jasmine tea and pear. The wine is crisp with natural acidity developed in the grapes while growing in this cool climate. It will be a fine complement to a variety of light dishes, salads, fruit, and cheese.
